RESOURCES & COMMUNITY

CO-OPS

Homeschool co-ops are groups where families come together to share resources, teach classes, and build community. Co-ops often provide structured learning environments and access to specialized subjects or group activities. Look for co-ops that align with your family's values and educational goals.

TIPS FOR BUILDING YOUR COMMUNITY

- Attend local homeschooling events, workshops, and fairs.
- Reach out to families in your area through Facebook groups or co-op networks.
- Balance community involvement with time for personal growth and rest to avoid burnout.

Finding the right resources and community can transform your homeschooling experience, providing both the support and enrichment your family needs to thrive.
